

Gabrielle Batkin

Vice President, Legislative Affairs
Northrop Grumman Corporation

Gabrielle (Gabby) Batkin leads the corporate Legislative Affairs organization for Northrop Grumman.

In this role, Batkin develops and executes Northrop Grumman's legislative and domestic policy agenda. She is responsible for communicating the company's achievements and objectives to members of the U.S. Congress, state and local elected officials, government policy leaders, and trade associations. She also directs the employee-funded political action committee.

Prior to joining Northrop Grumman, Batkin served for over 20 years in staff positions in the U.S. Congress, including senior positions on the Senate Appropriations, Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs, and Environment and Public Works Committees. In those roles, she advised Senators and their staff on all aspects of the Committees' operations and agendas, including funding and policy issues across the entire federal government.

Batkin earned a master's degree in International Affairs from George Washington University and a bachelor's degree in International Studies from Bradley University.

Northrop Grumman is a leading global aerospace and defense technology company. Our pioneering solutions equip our customers with the capabilities they need to connect and protect the world, and push the boundaries of human exploration across the universe. Driven by a shared purpose to solve our customers' toughest problems, our employees define possible every day.