

Northrop Grumman Corporation
2980 Fairview Park Drive Falls
Church, VA 22042-4511
www.northropgrumman.com

November 18, 2025

Subject: Standards of Business Conduct

Dear Valued Supply Chain Partner:

Northrop Grumman has a long-standing legal and ethical conduct policy which guides how our employees and suppliers interact. This policy ensures that no one can use gifts or business courtesies to gain an unfair competitive advantage or exert improper influence.

Specifically, Northrop Grumman's Standards of Business Conduct and our internal policies limit our employees from soliciting and accepting gifts, gratuities, entertainment, or favors from suppliers. This includes invitations to parties, receptions, meals, and similar functions. The intent is to keep our business relationships honest and free from any appearance of impropriety.

We value our partnership and ask that you share this policy with everyone in your organization who interacts with Northrop Grumman. Please ensure they understand and follow these standards when dealing with Northrop Grumman employees. Adhering to ethical practices is a Northrop Grumman priority and is an essential element of our supplier relationships.

If you have questions or concerns regarding the Northrop Grumman ethics program, you may contact our Corporate Open Line at 800-247-4952.

For more information regarding Northrop Grumman values, ethics, and standards, please review the Northrop Grumman Standards Of Business Conduct for Suppliers and Other Trading Partners.

In closing, Northrop Grumman wishes you and your employees a safe and joyous holiday season and we thank you for ensuring our supply chain maintains the highest levels of legal and ethical integrity.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "KR Brown", written over a horizontal line.

Kenneth R. Brown
Vice President, Corporate Global Supply Chain