- C. Buyer's engineering, technical personnel and other representatives may from time to time render assistance or give technical advice or discuss issues or engage in an exchange of information with Seller's personnel concerning the Products or Services hereunder. No such action shall be deemed to be a change, nor shall it be the basis for an equitable adjustment, and no such action shall relieve Seller of its obligations under this Order.

14. GOVERNING LAW

Both Parties agree that, irrespective of the place of performance of this Order, this Order will be governed, construed and interpreted according to the law of the State of New York, United States of America (USA), without regard to its conflict of laws principles. The 1980 United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods and its related instruments will not apply to this Order.

15. DISPUTES

- A. Amicable Negotiation. All disputes, differences, controversies, claims or questions arising in connection with, arising out of, occurring under, or related to, this Order and any subsequent amendments thereto, including, without limitation, the formation, validity, binding effect, interpretation, performance, breach or termination, as well as non-contractual claims (a "Dispute") shall be reduced to writing in a document to be sent to the other Party, requesting amicable negotiation (a "Negotiation Request"). - B. Arbitration. In the event that the Dispute or any part thereof is not satisfactorily settled by negotiation within sixty (60) days (or within such further period of time as the Parties may have agreed in writing), any Party may file a request for arbitration (a "Notice of Arbitration") with the International Centre for Dispute Resolution (ICDR), in which case the Dispute shall be referred to and finally determined by binding arbitration pursuant to ICDR's International Arbitration Rules then in effect ("the Rules"), subject to the following provisions:

Where a tribunal of three (3) arbitrators is to be selected (the "Arbitral Tribunal"), each Party shall appoint a person to serve as an arbitrator. The two Parties' appointed arbitrators shall then appoint the Chairperson.
 2. If the Parties cannot jointly agree on the composition of the Arbitral Tribunal within thirty (30) days from the date of the Notice of Arbitration, ICDR shall appoint the Arbitral Tribunal in accordance with the Rules, appointing as many arbitrators and using such mechanisms to appoint them as it deems appropriate in accordance with the Rules, at its sole discretion.
 3. The Parties and ICDR shall ensure that the Arbitral Tribunal shall have been appointed at the very latest forty-five (45) days from the date of the Notice of Arbitration.

4. All arbitrators shall be fluent in English. The arbitrator (or the chairperson of the Arbitral Tribunal, in the event of a three person tribunal) shall not be of the nationality of anyone of the Parties and shall be a qualified lawyer.

If the Arbitration should involve multiple claimants and/or multiple respondents who cannot agree to a joint nomination of a single arbitrator for claimants and/or respondents within the time limit set out in paragraph B 2 above, the ICDR shall appoint all members of the Tribunal without regard to any Party's nomination, but considering the criteria set out in this paragraph B.

The Tribunal shall not decide the Dispute based on amiable compositeur (composition) or ex aequo et bono (from equity and conscience).
 - F. Confidentiality. Any settlement discussions or Arbitration hereunder shall be conducted in strict confidence. Except as necessary to enforce an award or required by law, no information or documents produced, generated or exchanged in connection with settlement discussions, Arbitration (including the award) shall be disclosed to any person without the prior written consent of all Parties to the settlement, Arbitration. This restriction shall not apply to public records or other documents obtained by the Parties in the normal course of business independent of any settlement discussions, Arbitration.
 - G. Scope of Tribunal's Jurisdiction. The scope of the Tribunal's jurisdiction shall not be limited because the subject matter of the Dispute implicates public policy questions or national statutory rights.

The Tribunal shall ensure that document production is conducted on a timely basis and the Tribunal may impose sanctions through the allocation of the costs of the Arbitration for abuse or undue delay of the document production procedure.
 - I. Written Reasoning, Finality and Enforcement of Award. The Award rendered by the Tribunal shall be reasoned and in writing. The Tribunal shall have the discretion to award reasonable costs to the prevailing Party but shall have no authority to award any double or treble damages, punitive damages or any other damages in the nature of a penalty. Such costs may include the costs of the arbitrators, the Tribunal administrator, and assistance required by the Tribunal, as well as reasonable costs for legal representation. The Award rendered by the Tribunal shall be binding on the Parties and may be entered in any court having jurisdiction over the Party or Parties to the Dispute against which enforcement is sought, or a court in any other competent jurisdiction where the assets of said disputing Party or Parties are located.
