NORTHROP GRUMMAN'S MARCH 18 COMMUNITY UPDATE
POSTPONED TO APRIL 1 DUE TO CORONAVIRUS

March 12, 2020

Dear Fellow Resident,

Northrop Grumman has postponed our March 18, 2020, community update at the Bethpage Community Center, 103 Grumman Rd. West, Bethpage, N.Y. 11714 until April 1.

We made the decision based on guidance from the U.S. Centers for Disease Control, 40 confirmed Coronavirus cases in Nassau County, and out of an abundance of caution for the health and well-being of our meeting attendees (many who are within the vulnerable age group).

We have advised New York State Department of Environmental Control Project Manager Jason Pelton, New York State Department of Health Project Manager James Sullivan and Town of Oyster Bay officials of our decision.

If NYSDOH and CDC guidance continues to recommend postponing large in-person gatherings, we will host the meeting via WebEx. Those details will be forthcoming and will be posted to our web site.

Northrop Grumman continues, as it has done for several decades, to work in close coordination with the U.S. Navy and federal, state and local environmental and health authorities to address legacy environmental conditions in the area. You can learn more about our project at www.northropgrumman.com/bethpage.
